

BIO
Kubra Jawher

Kubra Jawher is a Sri Lankan-based Islamic outreach activist and Founder of Muslimahs for Religious Freedom (formerly: Muslimahs for Circumcision), a Colombo-based organisation that seeks to educate Muslim women on the need to safeguard their religious rights, which are in danger of being undermined due to misinformation and Islamophobia.

Her organisation has created awareness of the difference between Islamic Female Circumcision (IFC) and Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) through a video production:

and through the production of memes widely shared on Facebook and whatsapp groups.

She also volunteers for outreach work at organizations like the Centre for Islamic Studies in Colombo:
